

Dr. Sriwan Tapanya, is the Director of sustainability development and strategic planning at the IKI-SEA Bangkok University.

As well as being a multi-lingual professional and a Ph.D. holder, he has a proven track record in strategic management (Execution strategy, performance management and Balanced Scorecard implementation), and brings with him a broad experiences (in both Public and Private sectors) in the fields of quantitative and qualitative research, consulting, management, and entrepreneurship.

He has implemented projects in a variety of industries, including: banking, manufacturing, power generation, retail, telecommunications and transportation, and previously held senior strategic management consultant roles in a number of government agencies.