

Dr. Vincent Ribière is the Managing Director and co-founder of the IKI-SEA. As a consultant he has worked with a number of organizations, including: Essilor, the Petroleum Authority of Thailand Exploration (PTT) and PTT Production Public Company Limited (PTTEP), Bayer Material Science (Rayong), PTT Chemical, Amadeus Asia, Petronas (Malaysia), the Peace Bureau (USAID) in Washington DC; Counterpart International in Washington DC; and, as CIO for EyeFlight in Washington DC. Dr. Ribière has published more than 50 publications on KM and its application. He has been working on KM for the past 13 years.

He is the Program Director of the newly created International PhD program in Knowledge and Innovation Management (KIM). He is an Associate Professor at Bangkok University's Graduate School, where he teaches on a variety of business topics, including: Knowledge Management, IT, Managing for Creativity, Innovation and Organizational Development; and Research Design and Methodology. Previously he has taught at the New York Institute of Technology in New York, and at the American University in Washington DC, as well as holding the position of chairman of the School of Management at the NYIT campus in the Kingdom of Bahrain.