

The IKI-SEA is proud to be a partner of the Online Information Asia-Pacific Exhibition and Conference

23-24 March 2011

The Hong Kong Convention & Exhibition Centre

Building on the success of over 30 years of running Online Information in the UK, Incisive Media are delighted to announce the launch of Online Information Asia-Pacific. The annual event will bring together a comprehensive range of international players alongside local companies in a Pan-Asian event serving the Information and Knowledge Management Profession. The event will focus on 5 key information industry sectors: Business Information, STM Information, ePublishing Solutions, Library Systems and Knowledge & Content Management. The list of companies booked in to exhibit is growing daily and is set to include up to 80 of the leading information industry suppliers.

This exciting new exhibition will be accompanied by a conference which will examine the latest innovations and ideas from the information world.

IKI-SEA members will be eligible for a discounted conference place .

There will also be a broad range of learning opportunities in the comprehensive programme of free seminars taking place on the show floor.
