

Two positions available

Written by Christian Walter
Tuesday, 09 August 2011 12:52

---

Bangkok University is looking for two individuals with a Thai citizenship, interested in working at Bangkok University, for the IKI-SEA while pursuing the Ph.D. in Knowledge Management and Innovation Management. The educational requirements equal those for the Ph.D. program. Experience in research, KM, IM or consulting are a beneficial.

With the position comes the grant for the Ph.D. KIM program, and secured faculty employment at Bangkok University after graduating from the Ph.D. program.

More information on the Ph.D KIM program can be found here .
More information about the grant are available here .